Btw – and this is more for HJ and Peggy: Christie was pretty upset about the space heater policy I just sent out the other day (not allowing them) and said something to me in a Skype message about being cold and her asthma acting up (not necessarily one causing the other, but seemed related) and I haven’t seen her since the afternoon she went home.

We have since revisited the issue and adjusted temperatures a bit in the office (with Heather and Robin) and concluded we can keep that one in the breezeway on since it's unavoidably cooler there and Mike can set it so it doesn't trip the circuit breaker.

I don't know this has been communicated to her. Not sure they are connected. I asked Mike to let her know but don't think she's been back in and don't know if she has email outside the office.

Tri Star is a business that is founded on Christian principles committed to modeling the example set by Jesus Christ and reflecting God's excellence in how we conduct our business. This includes a firm commitment to equal employment opportunity and selecting, promoting, and rewarding our employees on the basis of merit.

Equal Opportunity Statement

Tri Star is committed to complying with all federal, state, and local laws providing equal employment opportunities, and all other employment laws and regulations. It is our intent to maintain a work environment which is free of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation because of age, race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and/or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, or military and veteran status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws. Tri Star is dedicated to the fulfillment of this policy in regard to all aspects of employment, including but not limited to recruiting, hiring, placement, transfer, training, promotion, rates of pay, and other compensation, termination, and all other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment.

Tri Star will conduct a prompt and thorough investigation of all allegations of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation, or any violation of Tri Star's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy in a confidential manner. Tri Star will take appropriate corrective and remedial action, if and where warranted. Tri Star prohibits retaliation against any employee who provides information about, complains, or assists in the investigation of any complaint of discrimination or violation of Tri Star's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy.

We are all responsible for upholding Tri Star's Equal Employment Opportunity Policy and any claimed violations of that policy should be brought to the attention of Human Resources.

Policy Against Workplace Harassment

Tri Star has a strict policy against all types of workplace harassment, including sexual harassment and other forms of workplace harassment based upon an individual's age, race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and/or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, or military and veteran status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws. All forms of harassment of, or by, employees, applicants, unpaid interns, volunteers, vendors, visitors, customers, and clients are strictly prohibited and will not be tolerated.

EEO Statement and Non-Harassment Policy – continued

A. Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's employment (2) submission to, or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment.

While it is not possible to identify each and every act that constitutes or may constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples of sexual harassment are provided below: (a) unwelcome requests for sexual favors; (b) lewd or derogatory comments or jokes; (c) comments regarding sexual behavior or the body of another employee; (d) sexual innuendo and other vocal activity such as catcalls or whistles; (e) obscene letters, notes, emails, invitations, cartoons, articles, or other written materials of a sexual natures; (f) repeated requests for dates after being informed that interest is unwelcome; (g) retaliating against an employee for refusing a sexual advance or reporting an incident of possible sexual harassment to Tri Star or any government agency; (h) offering or providing favors or employment with Tri Star or benefits such as promotions, favorable evaluations, favorable assigned duties or shifts, etc., in exchange for sexual favors; and (i) any unwanted physical touching or assaults, or blocking or impeding movements.

B. Other Harassment

Other workplace harassment is often verbal or physical conduct that insults or shows hostility or aversion towards an individual because of the individual's age, race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, genetic information, marital status, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and/or related medical conditions), gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, or military and veteran status, or any other status protected by federal, state, or local laws.

Again, while it is not possible to list all the circumstances that may constitute other forms of workplace harassment, the following are some examples of conduct that may constitute workplace harassment: (a) the use of disparaging or abusive words or phrases, slurs, negative stereotyping, or threatening, intimidating or hostile acts that relate to the above protected categories; (b) written or graphic material that insults, stereotypes or shows aversion or hostility towards an individual or group because of one of the above protected categories and that is placed on walls, bulletin boards, email, voicemail, or elsewhere on Tri Star's premises, or circulated in the workplace; and (c) a display of symbols, slogans, or items that are associated with hate or intolerance towards any select group.

Reporting Discrimination and Harassment

Any employee who feels that he or she has witnessed, or been subject to, any form of discrimination or harassment is required to immediately notify Human Resources.

Tri Star prohibits retaliation against any employee who provides information about, complains, or assists in the investigation of any complaint of harassment or discrimination.

We will promptly and thoroughly investigate any claim and take appropriate corrective and/or remedial action where we find a claim has merit. If Tri Star begins an investigation, we will endeavor to conduct the investigation in a timely manner and we will keep the investigation confidential to the extent possible. In the same way, anyone involved in an investigation of harassment has an obligation to keep all information about the investigation confidential. That is why Tri Star will only share information about a complaint of harassment with those who need to know about it. Failure to keep information about an investigation confidential may result in disciplinary action. Investigations will be documented and tracked for timely resolution.

When the investigation has been completed, Tri Star will normally communicate the results of the investigation to the complaining individual, to the alleged harasser and, if appropriate, to others who are directly involved. If Tri Star's policy against harassment is found to have been violated, appropriate corrective action, up to and including termination, will be taken against the harasser so that further harassment will be prevented. Both the rights of the alleged harasser and the complainant will be considered in any investigation and subsequent action.

Discipline for violation of this policy may include, but is not limited to reprimand, suspension, demotion, transfer, and discharge. If Tri Star determines that harassment or discrimination occurred, corrective and remedial action will be taken to effectively end the harassment. As necessary, Tri Star may monitor any incident of harassment or discrimination to assure the inappropriate behavior has stopped. In all cases, Tri Star will follow up as necessary to ensure no retaliation for making a complaint or cooperating with an investigation.

In addition to Tri Star's internal complaint procedure, employees may also contact either the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) to report unlawful harassment. The EEOC and the DFEH serve as neutral fact-finders and will attempt to assist the parties to voluntarily resolve their disputes. For more information, contact Human Resources, or you may contact the nearest EEOC or DFEH office.

Retaliation prohibited

Tri Star prohibits retaliation against those who report, oppose or participate in an investigation of alleged violations of this policy. Participating in an investigation of alleged wrongdoing in the workplace includes:

1. Filing a complaint with a federal or state enforcement or administrative agency.
2. Participating in or cooperating with a federal or state enforcement agency that is conducting an investigation of the company regarding alleged unlawful activity.
3. Testifying as a party, witness or accused regarding alleged unlawful activity.
4. Associating with another employee who is engaged in any of these activities.
5. Making or filing an internal complaint with the company regarding alleged unlawful activity.
6. Providing informal notice to the company regarding alleged unlawful activity.

Tri Star strictly prohibits any adverse action or retaliation against an employee for participating in an investigation of alleged violation of this policy. If an employee feels that he or she is being retaliated against, the employee should immediately contact Human Resources or the CEO. In addition, if an employee observes retaliation by another employee, supervisor, manager or nonemployee, he or she should immediately report the incident to the individuals identified above.

Any employee determined to be responsible for violating this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Moreover, any employee, supervisor or manager who condones or ignores potential violations of this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Disability Accommodation

Tri Star complies with federal and state disability regulations, including the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). Qualified applicants or employees who inform Tri Star of a physical or mental disability requiring accommodation in order for them to perform the essential functions of their jobs should inform Human Resources of this so that we can together discuss what accommodations are available and appropriate.

Procedure for reasonable accommodation requests:

- ☐ Employee advises Human Resources of the need for accommodation. Employee completes a Request for Accommodation form and gives it to his or her supervisor.
- ☐ The accommodation request will be discussed with the employee and the employee's manager(s).
- ☐ The employee may be required to provide documentation supporting a disability, including medical certification.
- ☐ If a reasonable appropriate accommodation is readily available, the request will be approved, and the accommodation implemented.
- ☐ If an accommodation is not readily ascertainable, the matter will be pursued further with assistance from appropriate external resources.
- ☐ All requests for accommodations need to be approved by the CEO.

Tri Star will consider the request but reserves the right to offer its own accommodation to the extent permitted by law. Some, but not all, of the factors that Tri Star will consider are cost, the effect that an accommodation will have on current established policies, and the burden on operations -- including other employees -- when determining a reasonable accommodation. Tri Star does not retaliate against employees who request accommodations for disabilities.

Christie

Like we discussed this afternoon, here is a recap of our meeting regarding not arriving to work on time:

1. Going forward any delay beyond 9:30 a.m. requires communication via company e-mail – identifying the expected time of arrival as well as any other pertinent information
2. Communication is key – keeping myself informed about your absences and or late arrivals
3. Complete FMLA paperwork so Tri Star can make decisions regarding any accommodations that may be required
4. Discuss the seriousness of this situation with your health care provider(s) and build a support team to help you manage any conditions that are contributing to this behavior
5. In the absence of any documented conditions, continuing to arrive late to work i.e. outside the hours of 9 a.m. – 6 p.m. will ultimately result in termination of employment

I've tried to look it up online instead of bothering your office but didn't see alot of info. Are there any precautions you want me to be taking in regards to my asthma and covid-19 besides the normal wash your hands and clean your heavy touch surfaces? The only thing I saw online was people considering not taking their meds. That can't be right, right?

PS. I have been seeing a lot of improvement with the singular. I really didn't think I would but I have, especially in regards to recovery after a workout.

Sorry to have to bug you when your probably really busy,

The best thing you can do is wash your hands, work from home if you are able. If you have any symptoms, you need to self-quarantine.

Subject: COVID -19 Work from Home Update

Tri Star,

Your safety and the safety of your families is paramount in our discussions and plans. Therefore, it is time for us to reassess our plan in response to the changing circumstances that COVID-19 is demanding. We are a business management firm the middle of tax season and as such it is not feasible for the offices to close. There are other industries faced with the same dilemma we are, such as first responders, restaurants, grocery stores... We are sympathetic to the uncertainty these circumstances have caused and we are responding as quickly as possible.

However, we do realize that some of our employees may have needs arise out of their control that may require some flexibility in scheduling. We will review these requests on a case by case basis. If you can be in the office, we ask that you come in to work. In the event you feel that you need to work from home we ask that you speak with your Director and HR immediately.

There are a few instances that will be given WFH preference which are: School Closings and Employees or Spouse/Partner/Significant Others/Roommates with compromised immune systems. Those who are affected by either of these will be accommodated to the best of our ability. An accommodation may include a change in schedule or the issuance of a Tri Star laptop.

If you do end up working from home, please be aware that this is a benefit afforded to you which will prevent the use of Vacation or Sick Time. You are expected to work 8 hours each day as if you were in the office. Please communicate with your supervisor if anything comes up that may prevent that.

As a reminder, under No Circumstances should anyone work from home on your personal laptop. You must be approved to work from home by your Director and Lou with a letter signed off by Human Resources and have secure log on credentials.

Additionally, we are pleased to announce that the previous concerns about exposure were unfounded. Our offices have not been compromised and we want to try and keep it that way!

To, minimize delivery traffic within the offices we ask that you consider bringing your lunch over the next couple of weeks. However, if you would like to go out to lunch, we ask that you go pick up your meal. The LA office has hired an Office Hospitality & Upkeep associate named Jacqueline Pedrogo who will assist with daily cleaning. The Nashville office has Beatrice cleaning five days a week to disinfect the office daily for as long as needed.

Lastly, the nature of our business is stressful, it's tax season, and COVID-19 has added more stress into our busy lives. We are concerned about your total well-being. Attached is a flyer that provides information about our Employee Assistance Program. This service provides free counselling with a licensed professional. Please take advantage of these services if you feel it will help. Any questions please see Human Resources for assistance.

Best,

Yolanda Simpson

I have told Christie to take a sick day and stay at home today.

She has a cough. Hopefully not the Covid virus but who knows. She thinks its from Lysol spray.

I will also point out that Miles was coughing yesterday and sits just across from her so it is a little concerning to me.

She does have the ability to work from home since she has a laptop primarily for AMEX support after hours.

I am sure she would rather work from home than burn a sick or vacation day but really it would be irresponsible for her to come into the office.

I would recommend that you offer up a work from home situation but in the absence of this I think she should stay away from the office no matter how the time is counted.
